Opinions of the Press

'New and improved in style full of interest for children, and easily taught by the teachers

'We do not say that books because they are printed and bound in Ireland should be taken irrespective of merit but the fact that these Readers being in other respects suitable have been produced in Dublin will, we are certain make them all the more acceptable to Irish teachers

Opinions of the Inspectors

'Their use will tend to make the reading lessons a pleasure to both pupils and teachers

Opinions of the Teachers

"The Readers are already very popular with the children'

LESSON 11.

bird hung lark
hurt sang corn

Fred had a bird. He got it in the corn. It was a lark, and had hurt its wing. We put it in a cage, and hung it on the wall. In time the lark got well, and Fred let it fly off to its nest. The lark was glad, and sang as it got off.

Little Dash.

Dash is only a dog, but he is just like one of the family. He likes to take his part in doing what has to be done in the house, so he has his duties to do like the rest of us.

One of his duties is to prevent strange cats from coming into the garden. He seems to be very fond of this duty, and does it with great care and with much barking.

An Introduction to English Grammar.

By ADAM SPEERS, B.Sc., Lond.; Principal of the Upper Sullivan Schools, Belfast. Sixth Edition, Revised Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 1*s.*

The language used throughout being of the simplest possible kind, the book explains itself to pupils of ordinary capacity.

Professor Dougan, Queen's College Belfast, says—"Just what I was looking for; lucid and correct, and free from superfluity."

"It is something of a novelty to begin an elementary grammar by a simple explanation of what a sentence is, and by the subdivision of sentences into statements, questions, and commands. It is, however, a little bit of analysis, forming a rational and useful introduction to ordinary grammar. The syntax is very explanatory, with clear demonstration of the operation of the rules, and much care and attention are devoted to parsing."—School Board Chronicle.

"It is essentially a practical work, a valuable addition to the school books of the present day."—Irish Teachers' Journal.

GEOGRAPHY.

Outlines of Geography for Junior Classes.

Revised Edition, 1905. 112 pages, cloth, 6*d.*

"The compiler seems to have exercised a wise discretion in omitting some details of little value."—Schoolmaster.

"It is quite proper that children should know accurately the geography of their county and country; but in spite of Codes and Departments, we venture to assert that the first step in systematic geography should be the acquisition of a knowledge of the world as a whole, however slight. That is exactly what the Outlines furnish. We can heartily commend this book to Teachers."—Educational News.

Opinions of the Press.

"A well-printed, cheap, and convenient Manual. We can commend it as an excellent companion summary to oral lessons."—Schoolmaster.

"It is a very good specimen of what a book of this type should be. It is remarkable how large an amount of information and variety of matter the Author has been successful in working up into a highly interesting and useful class-book. It takes a prominent place in this admirable series."—Educational News.

"It is bound to become very popular, for simplicity and comprehensiveness are its characteristics." — Dublin Evening Herald.

"It is elementary in its force and clearness. It conveys facts with a directness absent from most geographies, and its accuracy often puts the generalities of the larger books to the blush. We could not close our notice of this little work better than by saying that it has sufficient magnetism to win back to study those of us whose school days are becoming dim memories."—Cork Daily Herald.

Opinions of Teachers.

"I am using Sullivan's Modern Geography for all Standards from IV. up. I consider it an ideal up-to-date Geography."—Jan. 21, 1904.

These Readers have been designed for use in Irish Schools. The author's aim has been to present the facts clearly and vividly so that the impression may be lasting. The lessons are written in such a way as to render formal explanation unnecessary, every technical term being explained where it occurs. Every interruption, necessitated by an unexplained term, distracts the attention of the class. The writer, aware of this from actual experience as a teacher, has been careful to obviate it.

Opinions of the Press on "Ireland."

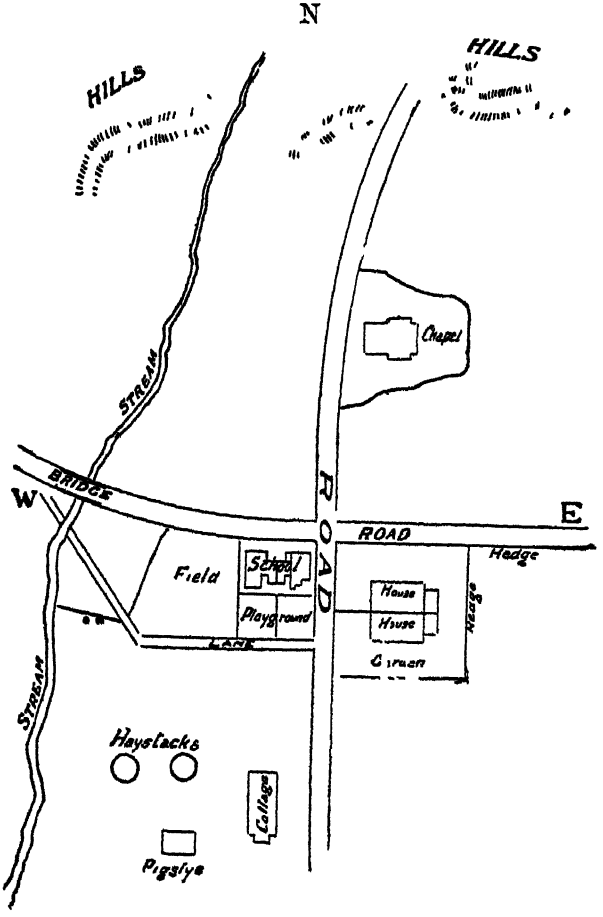

"A very good book at a very low price. It is full of information, justifying its Gaelic motto of 'Book of Knowledge on Eire,' and all the information is set out with both clearness of style and clearness of print, and its pretty binding of Irish blue is in itself an artistic recommendation. The historical part is not dry but takes in the old legends, and it stops short with the first English sovereign's assumption of the title of 'King of Ireland.' The topographical information contained in the book is as complete and ten times as readable as that in many a guide book. There are some valuable lessons in geology not to be had in so simple and attractive a form elsewhere, and there are a couple of chapters on the journeys of St. Patrick in Ireland. A topographical summary is given at the end, and the book is interspersed with pictorial illustrations and some choice Irish poetry. This Reader is a marvel of cheapness."—Weekly Irish Times.

"The little work is very comprehensive, and will give a pupil a general view of Irish topography and history in such a way that the acquirement of information will be a pleasure, not a task. The lessons are judiciously selected, and are bound together with a general thread of interest."—Weekly Independent.

Sullivan's Geographical and Historical Readers—The World.

16 GENERAL VIEW OF THE WORLD

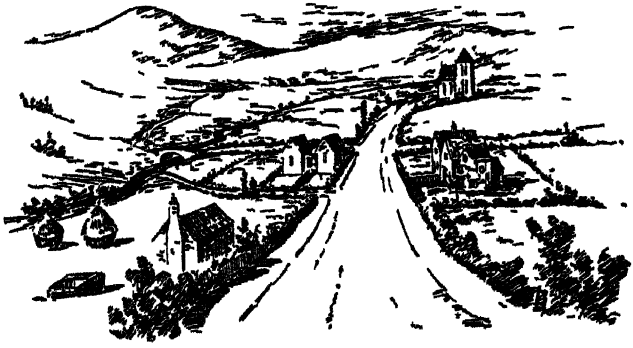

And now let us leave the school and its surroundings, and examine a map of a larger space. Here it is—a little map of our village.

MAP OF VILLAGE.

The space is so large, and the map so small, that the houses appear only as lines. If they were made larger they would occupy more space than they should in a map of this size. For the same reason many objects, that could be shown in a larger map of the village, must be excluded from this. Any mark that could be made to represent them would be too large, compared with the size of the map.

But here is a picture of the village from the road as we come into it. Notice how the plan showed the correct position of the chapel and the school buildings, the houses, cottage, pigstye, and haystacks.

ROUND THE IRISH COAST.

I.—From Dublin to Cork.

Of the thirty-two counties into which Ireland is divided just half the number border on the sea. Some have a long line of coast, others are almost shut in by the surrounding counties. We have sailed in imagination round many distant lands,* in order to get a view of their outlines; let us now make a similar circuit of Ireland.

KINGSTOWN.

Starting at Dublin Bay, we pass Kingstown, with its fine harbour crowded with shipping, and

The revision of the Introduction to Practical Farming has been undertaken with the view to lead pupils of Irish National Schools to give attention to some of the principles that are involved in the practice of agriculture. It is hoped that the teacher may find that the subject will be thereby more easily taught, and that the pupils by commencing at school to learn the "reason why" may cultivate a spirit of observation that will be useful to them in after life, whatever business or profession they may be engaged in.

Part II., for advanced students, 200 pp., cloth, price 2s.

"Professor Doherty has done for Book-keeping what he did for Mechanics. He has produced a work which is certain to become the text-book for the Teachers' Examinations. It has the same merits as his admirable work on Mechanics. One portion of the subject is taken at a time; a clear explanation is given; a short exercise is then worked out as an example, and fully illustrated; and similar exercises are given to be worked by the student himself, with the help of the model exercise. The reasons for all the operations are carefully given, and the student at each step is called upon to think for himself. The examples are so short that any one of them can be worked through at a sitting." — Irish Teachers' Journal.

WRITING.

Thom's Head Line Copy Books.

24 pages, price 1*d.* each.

The distinguishing character of the writing is its perfect simplicity and ease, and its freedom from flourish on the one hand, and from affected stiffness on the other. As the copies are fac-simile from actual writing and not "Copperplate" they are very easily imitated, and the pupil learns nothing which he has afterwards to unlearn.

These books are issued in three Series, as follows:—

Vertical Series in 17 Numbers.

Civil Service Series in 6 Numbers.

Sloping Series in 15 Numbers.

Thom's Head Line Copy Books.

Vertical Series.

This series has been introduced to meet the requirements of those teachers who prefer to teach an upright style of writing This style has great advantages and it is very easily acquired. In response to a wish expressed by many teachers, who adopted this style in their higher classes, elementary numbers have now been added to the series, making it possible to teach it consistently from the lowest to the highest grade. In its final form it leads almost imperceptibly into the well-known style of the Civil Service Series.

"As soon as the half text is reached the departure from the copperplate form of letter is appreciable."

"Whether intentionally or not, it looks as if, from the very beginning, the 'Civil Service' requirements were the guiding principle in their preparation."

These books have become so well known that it is unnecessary to say much about them. Since their first introduction they have been the Standard of excellence in this particular style of writing.

Opinions of the Inspectors.

"I am glad to say that the excellent series published by Messrs. Thom & Co. are, owing to their own intrinsic merits, becoming very generally adopted in this district, particularly in Boys' Schools."

"The Civil Service numbers in this series I consider far the best of their kind, the style of writing in them being well suited for either the public service or mercantile life, and at the same time admitting of some individuality in handwriting being displayed, and of being executed with a fair amount of celerity and ease."

Thom's Head Line Copy Books.

Sloping Series.

The Sloping Series now consists of fifteen numbers, several additions having been recently made to it in order to keep it well up to the front rank of books devoted to the wants of those teachers who still prefer the sloping style of writing.

One great peculiarity which has always given these books their leading position, is the fact that they are fac-simile from real practical writing—not merely reproductions of copperplate penmanship.

"The copies are fac-simile from actual writing. The style is easy and graceful, and the exercises are well graduated."

Opinions of the Press.

"There are few countries in the world that possess richer treasures in mediæval art than Ireland does. From the rich material at their command the compilers have succeeded in selecting a series of subjects perfectly graduated from the simplest combinations of straight lines up to the elaborate ornament required by the higher standards.

"The idea of taking for this purpose the vigorous designs to be found in our ancient churches and illuminated MSS. has produced what we have no hesitation in saying is the finest series of drawing copies that we have yet seen."—Freeman's Journal.

"We have received some copies of this unique series of Drawing Books. The figures are all beautiful, being selections from ancient Irish ornaments.

"At a time when there is a demand for technical education, we believe the publishers were well advised in producing these books. Guide lines are inserted in the earlier books, and in this way the task of the learner is much facilitated."—Irish Teachers' Journal.

Addis, W. E., M.A.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE ROMAN EMPIRE. Cloth 2/6 net.

The Review of Reviews says:—'The daily crop of small manuals seldom inspires any great respect, but Mr. Addis's manual is an exceptionally good little work He deals with many points, and puts many things, people and events in their right places, all within a few pages; and yet the result is a real book, not a mass of notes. He writes on the condition of the Roman Empire, the diffusion of Christianity, the legal position of Christians, the Apologists, the Gnostics, and internal changes in the Christian body. There is considerable cleverness in the choice and arrangement of the materials, and Mr. Addis is also scrupulously fair-minded.'

Armstrong, Richard A., B.A.

COME TO ME O YE CHILDREN Twelve Pulpit Talks to Boys and Girls. Cloth 2/- net.

'Mr Armstrong has published various books that reveal him as the profound thinker and enlightened theologian. But nothing from his pen is comparable in the bestowal of unalloyed delight, to this little book, which reveals him as the lover and kindly instructor of young people. In his "talks" he guides them towards paths of thought for the traversing of which it is well they should be prepared; and often in such a manner that they are at the very heart of some literary or historical masterpiece, and are learning its soul-lesson before they realise that they are not reading or listening to some mere interesting fairy tale.'—Liverpool Post

OUTLINE LESSONS IN RELIGION. Sewed 6d. net. Postage 1d.

An excellent manual for teachers. The author takes his lessons from a stone, an acorn, a dog, and so on to a child, marking the upward development of each, and ending with suggestive lessons on Conscience, God, etc.

SUNDAY LESSONS FOR INFANTS. Cloth 1/C net. Illustrated.

A Manual for the use of parents and teachers.

The Inquirer says:—'Useful little lessons on Natural History; the object of the whole series, to quote the words of the author being, "first, to lead the children, through their faculties of admiration and wonder, from the marvels of creation to the Great Creator so that their hearts may grow in love and trusting obedience to Him who doeth all things well; and secondly, to urge them to be faithful to duty and helpful and loving to one another."'

A YEAR OF SUNDAY LESSONS. Based on the Two Great Commandments, Love to God and Love to Man. Reprinted from 'The Helper,' 1899. 6d. net.

For those parents and teachers who wish to have some sequence in their lessons throughout the whole year, the opportunity is here afforded them of following out a course with system and method; but at the same time, the divisions are so arranged that a course of four to twelve lessons may be easily selected, or even a single one separated from the rest.

THE BOOK OF BEGINNINGS, OR STORIES FROM GENESIS, AND HOW TO TEACH THEM. Cloth, 1/- net. Postage 3d.

The Christian World says: 'The Book of Beginnings; or, Stories from Genesis, is a specimen of that class of literature the need of which is being felt by all religious schools, in which the new knowledge about the Bible is adapted to the religious teaching of the young The book is well-planned. The selections from Genesis are given unaltered, in large type, preceded in each case by a brightly-written statement of what in the author's view, the Biblical story amounts to for the modern reader.'

ELIZABETH FRY, the Prisoner's Friend. Cloth 8d. net.

The author says: 'Mrs. Fry belonged to the peace-loving sect of Friends, by some termed Quakers; but the stream of her religious ardour and sympathy flowed far beyond its bounds. Various interesting books have been written about her; but I have ventured to publish this little sketch in the hope it may convey some impulse toward good, some better appreciation of the life and labours of one who, like the Master she devotedly loved and served, went about doing good.'

GEORGE SMITH OF COALVILLE. Cloth 8d. net.

Carpenter, J. Estlin, M.A.

LIFE IN PALESTINE WHEN JESUS LIVED. New edition. Cloth 1/- net. Postage 3d.

The Schoolmaster says: 'This is perhaps the best shilling's worth of information on the Holy Land that we ever came across. Carefully written, a pleasing subject has been surrounded with additional interest, and a useful handbook to the first three gospels is now ready for public perusal. It does not require to read more than half-a-dozen pages to feel that our attention is not likely to flag during the rest of the volume. The country, people, Government, and religion are all discussed in turn—nothing hurried or curtailed, every sub-division given its due share, and the result is a whole upon which the author may fairly be congratulated. It only needs that the book have a good sale to be appreciated as we feel it.

Cooke, Frances E.

THEOPHILUS LINDSEY AND HIS FRIENDS. Cloth 1/- net.

'The stories of Lindsey and his friend Dr. Priestley, which are combined in this little volume, are almost unknown to young people of the present day. Yet, because of their faithfulness to duty and fearless search after truth, these men should be lasting examples for all time, and should appeal to the reverence even of those who differ from them in opinion.'—Preface.

NOBLE WORKERS. Cloth 1/- net. Postage 3d.

Short sketches of lives of Dr. Chalmers, Mary Ware, Thomas Thrush, Michael Angelo Buonarroti, Frederick Christopher Perthes, Catherine Cappe, John Withers Dowson, Joseph Sturge, and William Lloyd Garrison.

STORY OF THEODORE PARKER. Second edition, Cloth 1/- net.

'Although written for young people, there is much in this volume to attract those of maturer years, and teachers who are earnest in their work will find much to interest them in the career of Parker, himself a teacher, in whose heart the love of children was great to the overflow.'—Schoolmaster.

STORY OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING. Cloth 1/- net.

'The story of Dr. Channing told for boys and girls, terse, plain, pointed and attractive, a book which is sure to find its way into many of our young folks' Libraries and should be omitted from no School Library.'—Unity.

THE STORY OF JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER, the American Poet. Cloth, 1/- net. Postage 2d.

The Christian World says: 'It was a good idea to write the story of Whittier, so that young people should be stimulated by its beauty and interest. This is here done in a brief and unpretentious way, which should achieve its object, and form an excellent preparation for a fuller study of the man and his work.'

THE STORY OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI. Cloth 1/- net.

'Perhaps now, more than ever,' Miss Cooke says in a brief introductory note, 'we need the kindling influence of great aims and lofty ideals, and it would surely be well for ourselves and for the world about us if we were to try to carry the spirit of St. Francis into our daily lives.'

THE STORY OF DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX. Cloth 1/- net.

The New Age says: 'Miss Francis E. Cooke is a well-known writer of short biographies, and she has just added to the list a delightful story of the life and work of Dorothea Dix. The story of the noble devotion and self-sacrifice of this brave, beautiful soul is told in a way that cannot fail to do anyone good who reads it. The magnificent work done for the poor and friendless lunatics by Dorothea Dix places her in the front rank of the world's latter-day saints. We cordially commend this admirably printed little book to all who love courage and care for goodness.'

Crosskey, Henry W., LL.D., F.G.S.

THE METHOD OF CREATION. A comparison of the Book of Nature with the Book of Genesis. Cloth 1/- net.

'The very free criticism of the book of Genesis here given is likely to offend some old-fashioned teachers, but it will be owing to their having fallen behind the age. The views inculcated are those of the best scientific writers, and we rejoice that so sensibly written a little manual is accessible. It should be in large demand, for it supplies a readable and easily-grasped explanation of the main difficulties that occur to the mind in reading the Mosaic account of the Creation.'—Literary World.

Davis, Valentine D., B.A.

THE EPISTLES OF ST. PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS AND TO PHILEMON. Explained and Illustrated. Cloth 1/- net.

'. . . . Far more to our mind is the choice, careful, and thoughtful little book by Valentine D. Davis, B.A. Such a book as this is worth cartloads of certain theological publications; it does great credit to the series and to its author.'—Christian World.

TWELVE HYMNS AND THEIR WRITERS. Biographical Sketches and Lesson Notes. Cloth, 1/- net. Postage 3d.

The British Friend says:—'The sketches of character are delightful from the delicacy and taste with which the author delineates the trend of thought in each of his subjects. The hymns are brief but well chosen, and well worth remembering for the thoughts they express.'

Dendy, John.

SUCCESSFUL LIFE. A Series of Essays. Cloth 2/- net.

'These frank and well considered addresses would make a good foundation for a useful course of lessons. Apart from class work this is also an excellent book to put into the hands of a young man for his own study.'—Christian World.

Gannett, William C.

THE CHILDHOOD OF JESUS. Cloth 1/- net. Postage 3d.

A most helpful book for teachers, as it will enable them so to describe the surroundings of the life of Jesus that the children will be able to picture them for themselves. There are also hints for class questions and conversations, which are most valuable.

THE THREE STAGES OF A BIBLE'S LIFE. Sewed 4d. net.

This little work has been found very helpful by parents, teachers, and elder scholars, and it has been republished in booklet form in the hope that it may aid those who have broken away from 'orthodoxy' to a truer and deeper reverence for what is still the Book of Books.

IN THE HOME. A Study of Duties. Sewed 3d. net.

This little work consists of 'aids' to study, and will therefore require thoughtful preparation by those who wish to use them. The author says: 'The aim has been to provide something for all ages, from the little ones to the fathers and mothers, and something, too, which may serve for home talks as well as talks in the Sunday School Class.'

Gillies, Mary.

LESSONS IN RELIGION. Cloth 1/- net.

Lessons on God in the Natural Creation, and God in the Moral and Spiritual Creation. The School Board Chronicle says of this book:—'The writer has bequeathed to her country a work that cannot be forgotten.' Teachers of boys' and girls' classes of ten years old and upwards will find this an excellent handbook.

Gregg, Florence.

THE STORY OF BISHOP COLENSO, THE FRIEND OF THE ZULUS. Revised by Miss Colenso. Cloth 1/- net. Postage 3d.

'This little work endeavours to show the Bishop's love of truth for its own sake, his courage in maintaining his convictions, and his fidelity to the law of human brotherhood which led him to sacrifice personal ease, long-standing friendships, popularity, and, at length, even life itself in the cause of the weak and oppressed.'—Author's Preface.

Gregg, The Misses.

JESUS: THE STORY OF HIS LIFE. Cloth 1/- net. Postage 3d.

'An attempt to present the story of the Gospels and such illustrative information as is to-day available in simple modern language suited to the comprehension of little children. This has been well done and is sure to interest the little ones.'—Literary World.

Haigh, J. L.

THE STORY OF JOSEPH. A Service of Song, with Music in both notations. 4d. net. Words of Hymns only, 1d.

'The Rev. J. L. Haigh's Service of Song, "The Story of Joseph," does not come as an untried novelty into our hands. The story is told in blank verse and the hymns, both words and music, are in keeping with the earnest tone of the whole. The Sunday School Association has now issued the Service in admirable form.'—Inquirer.

3. Cinderella.
4. Babes in the Wood.
5. Beauty and the Beast and Red Riding Hood.
6. William Tell.
7. King Amor.
8. The Unambitious Queen.

AUTHOR'S NOTE.—'These Plays make no pretence to literary merit. They are written in rhyme because verse is so much more easily learnt than prose. Experience has proved that most of them are within the range of elder scholars, while scenery, dresses, &c., are not very exacting.

'These simple and interesting little plays are written gracefully and with good taste, and might, by the elder children, be performed very effectively.'—Schoolmaster.

THE BIBLE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

By Dr. H. Oort and Dr. J. Hooykaas.

A Critical, Historical, and Religious Commentary on the Old and New Testaments.

Translated from the Dutch by the Rev. P. H. Wicksteed, M.A.

6 vols. Cloth 15/- net.

Each Volume can be had separately, price 3/6 net.
Postage 3d. each vol. and 1/- each set extra.

CONTENTS OF THE SEPARATE VOLUMES :—

Vol. 1. The Generations before Moses.
„ 2. From Moses to David.
„ 3. From David to Josiah.
„ 4. From Josiah to the Maccabees.
„ 5. The Narratives of the New Testament.
„ 6. Jesus, his Death and afterwards.

The late Very Rev. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., Dean of Canterbury, said in a recent issue of The Christian World: 'There is a remarkable book by Dr. Van Oort written in Dutch by a pupil of the great Professor Kuenen and under his supervision called "The Bible for the Young." It has been translated into English, and goes much farther, on many points, than I should myself go ; but it is a learned and most interesting book, and it demonstrates that there need be no evaporation of any of the best lessons of Scripture even in the hands of teachers who are advanced votaries of the Higher Criticism.'

'It is eminently sensible and popular in form, and the style of the English translation is clear and simple. Its information is abreast of the most advanced thought and research ; but its erudition is not obtruded, and never introduced in a way to form any difficulty to the most simple or unlearned reader.'—Scotsman.

In recent popular theology, one of our most important books is Mr. Philip Wicksteed's excellent translation of Dr. OORT'S "Bible for Young People.' How it would have rejoiced Goethe, whose early partiality for Genesis is well known to see such delicate sympathy with the beautiful legends of the Israelites, coupled with such genuine but lightly-worn learning, and uncompromising loyalty to the moral sense of our times.'—Westminster Review.

It treats the Bible much in the same way that Dr. Arnold treated Roman history, giving at the beginning of each chapter the "legend" with which we are all familiar, then the criticism of it, and finally vindicating its title to a place in the instruction of the young by drawing such moral and religious lessons as seem to flow from the result thus obtained. All this is extremely well and attractively done, and young people who take it up are likely enough to be fascinated by it. It brings the discussions of foreign scholarship for the first time in an easy and accessible form before the general English public ; and it is one of the many indications continually pressing upon us that these subjects can no longer be safely ignored in the public teaching of the church. —Guardian.

The Rev. PHILIP H. WICKSTEED, M.A., the well-known and acknowledged authority on Old Testament Criticism, and translator of the work, writes, under date of 13th Nov., 1896 :—'In the main this work may be taken as representing the best opinion of Scholars, better now than when it was written. Opinion has come up to it.

The Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians.

Explained and Illustrated. By Rev. JAMES DRUMMOND, M.A., LL D., D Litt., Principal of Manchester College, Oxford.

'The Principal of Manchester College does well whatever he undertakes'—Expository Times.

'The explanations and illustrations are clear brief, and always to the point.'—Critical Review

'Written in a singularly clear and easy style, while at the same time marked by sound scholarship and a fine appreciation of the Apostle's spirit.'—Academy

The Book of Beginnings, or Stories from Genesis, and How to Teach them.

By MARIAN PRITCHARD.

The Christian World says 'The Book of Beginnings: or, Stories from Genesis, is a specimen of that class of literature the need of which is being felt by all religious schools in which the new knowledge about the Bible is adapted to the religious teaching of the young The book is well planned The selections from Genesis are given unaltered, in large type, preceded in each case by a brightly-written statement of what, in the author's view, the Biblical story amounts to for the modern reader.'

Sunday Flowers for Sunday Hours.

A Sunday Book for Little Folk. By JENNETT HUMPHREYS. Illustrated.

'Parents and teachers may use it for the first Bible lessons with perfect confidence.'—Inquirer.

ONE SHILLING NET.

Christianity and the Roman Empire.

By Rev. W. E. ADDIS, M.A., of Balliol College, Oxford.

The Review of Reviews says 'The daily crop of small manuals seldom inspires any great respect, but Mr. Addis's manual is an exceptionally good little work. He deals with many points and puts many things, people, and events in their right places, all within a few pages, and yet the result is a real book, not a mass of notes. He writes on the condition of the Roman Empire, the diffusion of Christianity, the legal position of Christians, the Apologists, the Gnostics, and internal changes in the Christian body. There is considerable cleverness in the choice and arrangement of the materials, and Mr. Addis is also scrupulously fair-minded.'

The Christian's Great Interest. By William Guthrie

Second Impression of this Edition

William Guthrie was one of God's nobility of the stern times that brought out the noblest qualities of such men as Samuel Rutherford. The clear notes of the old Gospel ring out from every page. It is a treatise that contains the testing searching fire and the soothing balm of Gilead. No Christian could read it without gaining strength for service and for conflict. —Baptist

The Confessions of St. Augustine.

Fifth Reprint of this Edition

We rejoice to see this famous book in a convenient and accessible form and in an English dress which loses little by comparison with the Fifth Century Latin of the original. — Leader

So long as men hunger after righteousness the spell of the book will never be broken. As a spiritual autobiography it ranks with the world classics for it touches the deepest problems of experience and destiny.

Spectator

The Religious Affections. By Jonathan Edwards

Second Reprint of this Edition

A most acceptable and unique series is greatly enriched by this famous work from the pen of America's finest philosopher and divine.

Literary World

Quiet Hours. By John Pulsford, D.D.

Fifth Reprint of this Edition

John Pulsford's merit defy analysis. Among religious teachers he is a prince and stands alone. This new and tasteful edition will delight admirers all the world over. —Examiner

Grace Abounding to the Chief of Sinners. By John Bunyan

Third Reprint of this Edition

The very title is rich in the music of eternal hope. The book ranks with the great religious classics and in the editor of this choice new edition says its pages are lustrous with the light of genius and with the better and more heavenly light of grace. —Spectator

The "Journal" of John Woolman. With an Appreciation by John Greenleaf Whittier

Third Reprint of this Edition.

It is always good to be with Woolman. His famous Journal is emphatically one of the books for the heart and is most appropriately included in this beautiful little series. —Methodist Recorder

The Heidelberg Catechism. A Revised Translation

A beautifully printed little book. It makes a memorable product of early Protestantism readily accessible to English readers in a clear and accurate form and is prefaced by an admirably written essay on The Catechisms of the Reformation. —Christian World

UNIFORM WITH "BOOKS FOR THE HEART

Opinions of Eminent Writers on SWEDENBORG

By ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING

"To my mind the only light that has been cast on the other life is found in Swedenborg's philosophy."

By RALPH WALDO EMERSON

"I have sometimes thought that he would render the greatest service to modern criticism who shall draw the line of relation between Shakespeare and Swedenborg. The human mind stands ever in perplexity, demanding intellect, demanding sanctity, impatient equally of each without the other. As happens in great men, he seemed, by the variety and amount of his powers, to be a composition of several persons, like the giant fruits which are matured in gardens by the union of four or five single blossoms. One of the missouriums and mastodons of literature, he is not to be measured by whole colleges of ordinary scholars. His stalwart presence would flutter the gowns of a university. Our books are false by being fragmentary. . . . But Swedenborg is systematic, and respective of the world in every sentence; all the means are orderly given; his faculties work with astronomic punctuality; and his admirable writing is pure from all pertness and egotism. His religion thinks for him, and is of universal application. He turns it on every side; it fits every part of life, interprets and dignifies every circumstance."

By S. T. COLERIDGE

"I can venture to assert that as a moralist Swedenborg is above all praise; and that as a naturalist, psychologist, and theologian he has strong and varied claims on the gratitude and admiration of the professional and philosophical faculties."

By THOMAS CARLYLE

"I have made some personal acquaintance with the man, read several of his books, what biographies of his could be heard of, and have reflected for myself on the singular appearance he makes in this world, and the notable message he was sent to deliver to his fellow-creatures in the epoch. A man of great and indisputable cultivation, strong mathematical intellect, and the most pious seraphic turn of mind; a man beautiful, lovable, and tragical to me, with many thoughts in him which when I interpret them for myself I find to belong to the high and perennial in human thought."

By COVENTRY PATMORE

"I never tire of reading Swedenborg, he is unfathomably profound and yet simple. . . . You will find that it (Swedenborg's work) abounds with perceptions of the truth to a degree unparalleled perhaps in uninspired writings."

By HIRAM POWERS, Sculptor of the "Greek Slave"

"I am 'a New Churchman,' 'a Swedenborgian,' 'a New Jerusalemite,' without any reservation whatever, and I wish it to be known. I have always wished this to be known. Swedenborg is my Author, all other writers (in comparison) seem moving in the dark with tapers in hand, groping their way, while he moves in the broad light of the sun. Therefore, if it will do good, publish me as a New Churchman."

By Bishop PHILLIPS BROOKS

"I have the profoundest honour for the character and work of Emanuel Swedenborg. I have from time to time gained much from his writings."

Annual County Courts Practice (The). VOL. I. containing the Jurisdiction and Practice under the County Courts Act, the Bills of Exchange Act, and the Employers' Liability Act, and the Statutes, Rules of Practice, Forms, and Tables of Fees and Costs. VOL. II. contains the Jurisdiction and Practice under Acts other than the County Courts Act, 1888, the Bills of Exchange Act, 1855, and the Employers' Liability Act, 1880, and also the Jurisdiction under the Admiralty Jurisdiction Acts, together with the Statutes, Rules of Practice, Forms, and Fees. By HIS HONOUR JUDGE SMYLY, a member of the Rule Committee, and W. J. BROOKS, Barrister-at-Law. 2 Vols., or in 1 volume on thin paper. Price 25*s.* cloth. 5lb. 4oz. 2 vol. edition; 4lb. thin paper edition. See "Lawyer's Annual Library," page 27.

"The constant revision by competent hands which the yearly republication of the work has necessitated has brought it to a standard of accuracy and completeness otherwise unattainable, and it is the recognised authority among books of practice."—Law Journal.

Annual Digest (The) of Reported Decisions in all the Courts, including a selection from the Irish, with Collections of Cases followed, distinguished, explained and commented on, overruled and questioned, and References to the Statutes, Orders and Rules of Court, during the year. By JOHN MEWS, LL.M., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law. Royal 8vo. Price 15*s.* cloth. 1lb. 10oz.

NOTICE.—The Digest is also published quarterly. Each quarterly part incorporates and supersedes the last part. The subscription for the four parts is 17*s.* net. Postage 1*s.* extra.

See "Lawyer's Annual Library," page 27.

"The lawyer's annual is 'indispensable,' and is the most welcome of all law books. Without Mews' 'Annual Digest' the law would indeed be a trackless desert, for the cases and decisions of the Courts are almost as the sands of the desert in number. . . . That patient toiler of this pathless waste to point to each traveller the new posts and signs to guide him on his way. The practice of the law without Mews' Annual would be almost an impossibility."—Law Notes.

Annual Practice (The). Being a Collection of the Statutes, Orders and Rules relating to the General Practice, Procedure and Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and on appeal therefrom to the House of Lords. With Notes, Forms, &c. By THOMAS SNOW, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, CHARLES BURNEY, B.A., a Master of the Supreme Court, and F. A. STRINGER, of the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice. 2 vols. Or in one volume on thin paper. 8vo. Price 25*s.* cloth, net. 8lb. 2 vol. edition; 4lb. 8oz. thin paper edition. See "Lawyer's Annual Library," page 27.

"It is superfluous to enlarge at this time of day on the merits of the 'Annual Practice.' No lawyer's library is complete without it. It has become as indispensable to the practitioner as his daily newspaper to the policeman and his Common Prayer-book to the clergyman."—Literature.

Annual Statutes of Practical Utility; and Statutory Rules and Orders. Arranged with Notes in continuation of CHITTY'S STATUTES. By J. M. LELY, Esq., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. Royal 8vo. 1895. price 5*s.* cloth. 1896, price 10*s.* cloth. 1897, price 5*s.* cloth. 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, price each 7*s.* 6*d.* cloth. 11b. 8oz. 1895 to 1901 arranged under one alphabet. 1 vol. Price £2 2*s.* cloth.

See "Lawyer's Annual Library," page 27.

NOTICE.—In the "Annual Statutes" the Acts are arranged under subject-headings and are easy of reference. Ample notes are added referring to previous Acts, explaining difficult clauses, and citing cases bearing on the subjects affected.

In addition to this, Statutory Rules and Orders are also included, annotated like the Statutes. In many cases the Statutes are incomplete and unworkable without the Rules and Orders, owing to the growing practice of passing skeleton Acts and delegating supplemental legislation to Government Departments.

ARCHBOLD'S Pleading, Evidence and Practice in Criminal Cases. With the Statutes, Precedents of Indictments, &c., and the Evidence necessary to support them. By Sir JOHN JERVIS. The Twenty-third Edition, including the Practice in Criminal Proceedings by Indictment. By W. F. CRAIES and G. STEPHENSON, of the Inner Temple, Barristers-at-Law. Price 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* cloth. Circuit binding 5*s.* extra. 4lb. 8oz. 1905

"This is indeed a marvellous work. At the present time it may be safely said to be the book on criminal procedure. Universally used by solicitors, barristers, and officials whose work or duties involve a knowledge of criminal law, it is respected and relied on by the judges."—Law Notes.

ARNOULD on the Law of Marine Insurance and Average. Seventh Edition. By E. L. DE HART and R. I. SIMEY, of the Inner Temple, Barristers-at-Law. In 2 Vols. Price 3*l.* 3*s.* 10lb. 1901

"Among the most important matters which are treated with special fulness are insurable interest, warranties express and implied, general and particular average, and constructive total loss, and on any of these the work will be found to be a mine of judicial precedent and actual practice."—Solicitors' Journal.

GOODEVE'S (L. A.) Modern Law of Personal Property. With an Appendix of Statutes and Forms. Fourth Edition. Revised and partly re-written. By J. HERBERT WILLIAMS, LL.B., one of the Authors of "Williams and Yates on Ejectment," and W. M. CROWDY, Barristers-at-Law. Price 18s. cloth. 3lb. 4oz. 1904

"The text is comprehensive, accurate, and clear, while the notes always guide the reader to the latest authorities, and frequently give him in addition, in concise and well-digested form, more detailed information than is suitable for the body of an elementary work. In speaking of the work as elementary we by no means imply that it is suited for students only. The design of the editors, we are told, has been to expound in the body of the text the elementary principles of law for the instruction of students, but this has been done in such a manner that the practising lawyer may often consult the book with advantage before searching for the law in more detail elsewhere."—Solicitors' Journal.

HAYES & JARMAN'S Concise Forms of Wills, with Practical Notes: a popular view of the Statute of Wills, and Suggestions to Persons taking Instructions for and preparing Wills; the Decisions on the Wills Acts and other Testamentary Matters in the House of Lords and Privy Council, and in the Equity, Common Law, Ecclesiastical and Probate Courts, down to the Time of Publication, and many Additional Forms. Twelfth Edition. By J. B. MATTHEWS, Barrister-at-Law. Price 21*s.* cloth. 2lb. 12oz. 1905

"This book is so well known that detailed criticism of it is superfluous. Unlike most other collections of precedents, this book is used by practitioners quite as much for the purpose of referring to the notes and dissertations comprised in it as for the 'concise forms.' The short treatise 'On Domicile,' contained in Appendix II. to the present edition, is a very successful attempt to treat at once briefly and accurately a difficult subject. It is the most useful book of its kind."—Law Journal.

KEY & ELPHINSTONE'S Precedents and Forms in Conveyancing. Eighth Edition. By Sir HOWARD W. ELPHINSTONE, Bart., one of the Conveyancing Counsel of the Court, F. T. MAW and E. M. BONUS, all of Lincoln's Inn, Barristers-at-Law. In 2 Vols. royal 8vo. Price 3*l.* 10*s.* cloth. Vol. I. 5lb.; Vol. II. 4lb. 12oz. 1904

"It is, in our opinion, both in design and execution, for many purposes, beyond all comparison, the most convenient book of precedents in existence. We find everywhere care, accuracy and anxiety to meet the difficulties of the practitioner."—Solicitors' Journal.

"Sir Howard Elphinstone has now resumed his work on the book, of which it is probably not too much to say that, since legislation and changes in conveyancing practice have rendered 'Davidson's Precedents' to some extent obsolete, it is the collection of forms which is best known and most widely used among conveyancers; being much more full than 'Davidson's Concise Precedents,' and not so unwieldy as Mr. Robbins' great edition of 'Bythewood and Jarman.'"—Law Journal.

"'White and Tudor' towers high above all other works on Equity. It is the fountain of Equity, from which all authors draw and drink. It is the book we all turn to when we want to know what the Judges of the old Court of Chancery, or its modern representative, the Chancery Division, have said and decided on this or that principle of law. It is the book in which counsel in his chambers puts such faith, and from which in Court counsel reads with so much confidence. It is the book from the law of which judges hesitate to depart."—Law Notes.

WIGRAM'S Justices' Note-book. Containing the Jurisdiction and Duties of Justices, and an Epitome of Criminal Law. Seventh Edition. By H. WARBURTON and L. W. KERSHAW. Price 10*s.* 6*d.* cloth. 1lb. 12oz. 1900

LARGE GAME SHOOTING

IN THIBET, THE HIMALAYAS, NORTHERN AND CENTRAL INDIA

By Brig.-General ALEX. A. A. KINLOCH.

MARKHAM CHAPMAN, Esq. — Ovis Hodgsoni

Times — Colonel Kinloch, who has killed most kinds of Indian game, small and great, relates incidents of his varied sporting experiences in chapters which are each descriptive of a different animal. The photogravures of the heads of many of the animals, from the grand gaur, popularly miscalled the bison, downwards, are extremely clever and spirited.

Graphic — This splendidly illustrated record of sport. The photogravures, especially the heads of the various antelopes, are life like, and the letterpress is very pleasant reading.

A NATURAL HISTORY OF THE MAMMALIA OF INDIA,

BURMAH AND CEYLON.

By R. A. STERNDALE, F.R.G.S., F.Z.S.

With 170 Illustrations by the Author and others.

The geographical limits of the present work have been extended to all territories likely to be reached by the sportsman from India It is copiously illustrated, not only by the author himself, but by careful selections made by him from the works of well known artists

Knowledge — It is the very model of what a popular natural history should be

Saturday Review — Full of accurate observations brightly told

Athenæum — The results of a close and sympathetic observation

The Times — The book will no doubt be specially useful to the sportsman and indeed has been extended so as to include all territories likely to be reached by the sportsman from India

The Daily News — Has contrived to hit a happy mean between the stiff scientific treatise and the bosh of what may be called anecdotal zoology

GAME, SHORE, AND WATER BIRDS OF INDIA.

WITH ADDITIONAL REFERENCES TO THEIR ALLIED SPECIES IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD

By Colonel A. LE MESSURIER, C.I.E., F.Z.S., F.G.S.
(late Royal Engineers) Author of
Kandahar in 1879 From London to Bokhara and a Ride through Persia

With 180 natural size Illustrations from actual Specimens.

A Vade Mecum for the Sportsman, embracing all the Birds at all likely to be met with in a Shooting Excursion.

Reviews of Third Edition.

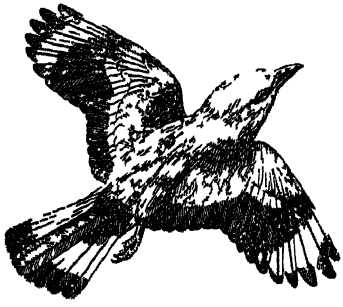

Times — Colonel Le Messurier writes as a field naturalist for field naturalists and sportsmen without any great pretensions to scientific knowledge, but there is no doubt that all naturalists will gain useful hints from this little volume which is profusely illustrated with wood cuts showing the characteristic features of most of the species.

Asiatic — Compact in form excellent in method and arrangement and as far as we have been able to test it rigidly accurate in details, Colonel Le Messurier's book should become the vade mecum of every sportsman and naturalist whom duty or pleasure may compel to visit India.

Madras Times — Neatly and handily bound well printed and clearly illustrated the book undoubtedly fills a void in the literature of the day. The work is well arranged and will probably fully answer the requirements of even a veteran sportsman.

By Mrs. POWER O'DONOGHUE.

With 68 Illustrations by A CHANLEY CORFIELD.

This able and beautiful Volume forms a standard on the subject, and is one which no lady can dispense with.

Reviews of Second Edition.

The Lady — Probably the best book on riding that has ever been written

Irish Field — Her style is clear and convincing, and what she has to say she says in the simplest possible manner

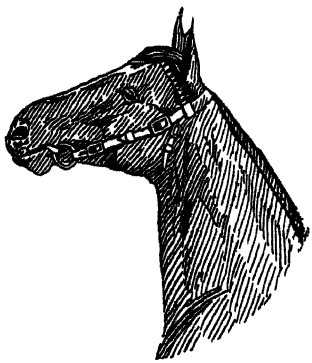

Judy Portrait — No more complete treatise on equitation could easily be put forward

Ladies Field — Advice on all points connected with the subject is so clearly given that not only beginners but experienced riders will find it invaluable'

The Queen — 'The volume has been carefully written, and shows great observation on the part of the writer

THE IMPERIAL RUSSIAN NAVY.

By FRED T. JANE.

With over 150 Illustrations from Sketches and Drawings by the Author and from Photographs.

The First Edition appeared 5 years ago. Since then the Russian Navy has been revolutionised. The book has now been almost re-written, and stands as the only work dealing with the Russian Navy as it is in these early days of 1904.

Some of the Principal Contents.

The Germ of the Russian Navy, 865-1645—Peter the Great's founding of the Russian Navy—Its Battles—Its History—Detailed Descriptions (with photographs and plans) of all the Ships at present on the Russian Navy List; of all the Russian Dockyards—Russia's Shipbuilding Programme—Projected Ship Canals—The Personnel of the Fleet—Anglo-Russian Relations—Biographies and Services of British Officers who have served in the Russian Navy—Plans of Battles—A Complete List of Russian War Ships, built and building.

The Times.—"Full of information compiled with laudable skill and industry, not the least instructive part of it being that which deals with the personnel of the Russian Navy, about which the average English reader knows, as a rule, little or nothing."

Daily News.—"Mr. Jane's volume of more than 700 pages may be described as an up-to-date, well-arranged, and concise encyclopædia of its subject."

"This work is 'partly historical and partly biographical.'"

"Under the head of 'facts' the reader will find some account of the three most remarkable events in the history of the Reformed Church of England. The first of these events is the ferocious attempt which was made by Queen Mary to destroy the work of Reformation which was begun in the reign of Edward the Sixth. The second event was the blind and abortive effort of Archbishop Laud to unprotestantise the Church of England, which resulted in his own execution, and well nigh ruined the Church and the monarchy for ever. The third event is the daring attack on English Protestantism, which was made by James the Second, when he persecuted the seven bishops. These three events ought to be familiar to every Englishman.

"Under the head of 'men' the reader will find in this volume some accounts of the lives and opinions of eleven remarkable men. At the head of the eleven I have placed John Wycliffe, the Morning Star of the Reformation. I believe that English Christianity owes him a great debt which has never been fully paid. Among them I have placed Archbishop Laud. He is a man who did such indelible harm to the Church of England, and yet is so generally over-valued and misunderstood that I have felt it a plain duty to put him before my readers in his proper colours. Six of the eleven were Reformers who were burned alive in Queen Mary's days, because they would not abjure their Protestant principles. Three of the eleven were Puritan divines, who lived in the seventeenth century, and made a deep mark in their day and generation."—Extract from Preface.

The "Upper Room" and other Sermons.

Delivered on important public occasions. Being Truths for the Times. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

"This volume contains a very miscellaneous collection of papers which I have sent forth from time to time, in one shape or another, during a forty-five years' ministry. Some of these papers are not known beyond a small circle of kind friends. Not a few of them are the substance of pulpit addresses delivered on important public occasions, and composed with more than ordinary pains. All of them, I venture humbly to think, will contain some useful truths for the times, and words in season."—Extract from Preface.

Principles for Churchmen.

A Manual of Positive Statements on Some Subjects of Controversy. Fourth Edition, revised. With the Bishop's Farewell Letter to the Diocese of Liverpool. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

"This volume consists of papers on subjects of deep interest to all Churchmen in the present day. About some of these subjects a wave of most unsatisfactory opinion is spreading over the land. About all of them there is a painful amount of ignorance and uncertainty in many minds, and myriads of Churchmen seem unable to say what they think and what they believe. On each of them this volume will be found to contain some plain and positive statements based on Scripture and the authorised formularies in the Church of England."—Extract from Preface.

Knots Untied:

Being Plain Statements on Disputed Points in Religion. Thirteenth Edition, Enlarged. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

PEOPLE'S EDITION OF THIS WORK.

Cloth Gilt, 1s. With Gilt edges, 2s. (See p. 7.)

"This volume consists of nineteen papers on subjects which are matters of dispute among English Churchmen in the present day, systematically arranged.

"The doctrinal tone of the volume will be found distinctly and decidedly 'Evangelical.' I avow that, without hesitation, at the outset. The opinions expressed and advocated about the matters discussed are those of an Evangelical Churchman. They are the only opinions which I can find in the Holy Scripture, in the Thirty-nine Articles, in the Prayer-book fairly interpreted, in the works of the Reformers, or the writings of pre-Caroline divines."—Extract from Preface.

Holiness:

Its Nature, Hindrances, Difficulties and Roots. With Preface, Introductory Essay, and Supplementary Extracts from Old Writers. Fifth Enlarged Edition. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

"I venture to think that the papers contained in this volume will be found helpful by all who take an interest in the subject of Scriptural holiness. I am much mistaken if they do not throw broad light on the real nature of holiness, and the temptations and difficulties which all must expect who follow it. Above all, I hope they will help to bring forward the grand truth that union with Christ is the root of holiness, and will show young believers what immense encouragement Jesus Christ holds out to all who strive to be holy."—Introduction.

Old Paths:

Being Plain Statements on Some of the Weightier Matters of Christianity. Fifth Edition. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

"This volume consists of a series of papers, systematically arranged, on the leading truths of Christianity which are 'necessary to salvation.' Such truths are the immortality of the soul,—the sinfulness of human nature,—the work of Christ for us as our Redeemer,—the work of the Holy Ghost in us,—forgiveness,—justification,—conversion,—faith,—repentance,—the marks of a right heart,—Christ's invitations,—Christ's intercession,—and the like."—Extract from the Preface.

Practical Religion.

Plain Papers on the Daily Duties, Experience, Dangers, and Privileges of Professing Christians. Sixth Edition. Price 2s. 6d. With gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

"This volume is intended to be a companion to two other volumes which I have already published, entitled 'Knots Untied' and 'Old Paths.'

"It contains a series of papers about 'practical religion,' and treats of the daily duties, dangers, experience, and privileges of all who profess and call themselves true Christians. Read in conjunction with another work I have previously put out, called 'Holiness,' I think it will throw some light on what every believer ought to be, to do, and expect."—Extract from Preface.

"The comfort of invalids and the edification of Christians in private have been the two principal objects I have had in view in preparing this collection. I hold strongly that holy thoughts often abide for ever in men's memories under the form of poetry, which pass away and are forgotten under the form of prose." —Extract from Preface.

NEW BOOKS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

QUEER THINGS ABOUT SICILY.

By DOUGLAS SLADEN and NORMA LORIMER.

Demy 8vo, Illustrated. 7s. 6d. net.

"Queer Things About Sicily" differs widely from Mr. Sladen's other books on the Island of the Sun. Not only has it the advantage of a number of chapters by Miss Norma Lorimer, authoress of that popular book, "By the Waters of Sicily," and the widely-quoted "Japan from a Woman's Point of View" in "More Queer Things About Japan." In this book Mr. Sladen has described Sicily from an entirely fresh standpoint; he shows how it strikes the ordinary traveller. He handles its drawbacks and peculiarities with the caustic and cynical pen which has given his books on Japan ten times the circulation of any others ever written on that wonderful country which has suddenly become one of the greatest powers in the world. "Queer Things About Sicily" is charmingly and exhaustively illustrated, and is very racily written.

QUEER THINGS ABOUT JAPAN.

SONNETS

And I myself grew faint and blind below
Their vanishing eyes. Then thou didst come—to be,
Beloved, what they seemed,
Their shining fronts,
Their songs, their splendours,
(better, yet the same,
As river water hallowed into font)
Met in thee, and from out thee overcame
My soul with satisfaction of all wants
Because God's gifts put man's best dreams to shame.

SONNETS

XXVII

My own Beloved, who hast lifted me
From this drear flat of earth where I was thrown,
And, in betwixt the languid ringlets, blown
A life-breath, till the forehead hopefully
Shines out again, as all the angels see,
Before thy saving kiss! My own, my own,

ANCIENT RECORDS

General Editor: WILLIAM RAINEY HARPER, President of the University of Chicago; Professor and Head of the Department of Semitic Languages and Literatures.

I. Ancient Records of Assyria and Babylonia. Special Editor: ROBERT FRANCIS HARPER, Professor of Semitic Languages and Literatures in the University of Chicago. (In preparation.)

II. Ancient Records of Egypt. Special Editor: JAMES HENRY BREASTED, Professor of Egyptology and Oriental History in the University of Chicago. Four volumes have been planned to appear at intervals between March 1 and July 1, 1906. Each volume contains an elaborate table of contents, and the editor has in contemplation the preparation of a fifth volume which will contain a detailed index of about 200 pages. The publication of this material will depend somewhat upon the reception of the volumes now announced, but, in any event, an adequate index will be issued, either with the fourth volume or separately, as circumstances may permit. The volumes will be delivered as published, and on orders received prior to July 1, 1906, an advance subscription price of $3.00, net, per volume, has been placed. After that date the price will be advanced to $15.00, net, per set.

III. Ancient Records of Palestine, Phœnicia, and Syria. Special Editor: WILLIAM RAINEY HARPER, Professor and Head of the Department of Semitic Languages and Literatures in the University of Chicago. (In preparation.)

UNWIN'S LIBRARY.

(CONTINENTAL)

On the Continent of Europe is published, chiefly for the convenience of travellers, English residents and students of English, a series of volumes known as UNWIN'S LIBRARY, bound in grey paper covers at special prices, for Continental use only. It contains chiefly works of fiction by the best modern English and American writers. One or two volumes are issued regularly every month. These books, together with Mr. Unwin's general publications, may be purchased at all Booksellers' on the Continent. Unwin's Library is also kept at all Railway Bookstalls.

UNWIN'S COLONIAL LIBRARY.

Throughout the British Colonies and Dependencies at all Book Stores will be found copies of the volumes included in UNWIN'S COLONIAL LIBRARY, in which are comprised the most popular works of leading novelists. The books are obtainable in two styles of binding, cloth gilt and paper sewed, and are exclusively for Colonial circulation. Mr. Unwin's general publications are also obtainable in the principal Colonial cities.

After reading this Catalogue, kindly pass it on to some book-buying friend, or send an address to which this or future editions may be sent.

The First Novel Library.

Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s. each.

"MR. T. FISHER UNWIN has shown a very dark and cunning knowledge of human nature in starting 'The First Novel Library.' The first novel is almost certain to be, whatever else it is, full of industry, solemnity and fire. . . . Mr. FISHER UNWIN is very wise to capture clever people while they still imagine that it is difficult to be clever."—Mr. G. K. CHESTERTON in The World.

The Series may also be had (in sets only) in a special Subscription Edition, at a little more than half the published price. Terms on application.

1, Adelphi Terrace.

A CURIOUS sign of the gradual transformation of London is the tendency of publishers to move from the City westwards. During the last few years several prominent firms have left their old quarters in Paternoster Row and its neighbourhood, and the West End can now claim as many well-known publishers as the purlieus of St. Paul's. The centre of the London book-producing world might, in fact, now be placed somewhere near Charing Cross. It is to this region that Mr. T. Fisher Unwin, whose business has outgrown the capacity of his office in Paternoster Square, has removed. His new office is at No. 1, Adelphi Terrace, a few steps south of the western Strand. Adelphi Terrace is known to architects and antiquarians as one of the most interesting works of the brothers Adam. It has had many residents of note—among them David Garrick, Topham Beauclerk, the wit, and his artist wife, "Lady Di." Lord Beaconsfield is said by some to have been born in one of its houses. No. 1, the future house of Mr. Unwin's business, was, in the second quarter of the nineteenth century, the residence of Sir Edward Banks, the builder of Waterloo, Southwark, and London Bridges. About twenty years ago it was occupied by the Arundel Club.

FOR THE CONTINENT ONLY.

UNWIN'S LIBRARY.

In grey paper covers, sewed, at Mark 1.50 or Francs 2.00.

Also to be had in cloth binding at special low prices.

"UNWIN'S LIBRARY" is published with the view of bringing before the English-reading public on the Continent a series of the best modern English and American novels. Humorous works and important autobiographies are also occasionally included. The list of authors contains chiefly names of established fame, such as John Oliver Hobbes, W. Clark Russell, "Rita," Olive Schreiner, E. F. Benson, William Barry, Louis Becke, Halliwell Sutcliffe, Amelia E. Barr, Lucas Cleeve, &c. But works by new writers who show real promise and ability have also been added to the series, and have won warm approval from the public. Of each work the sole Continental rights have been acquired.

The volumes are issued simultaneously with, or shortly after, the publication of the ordinary edition. The type is generally large, while the paper is excellent and feather light—characteristics which will please every reader. As many volumes are over 400 pages in length, the price is surprisingly low.

The good sale of the volumes published hitherto, and the many friendly congratulations received from readers, have convinced the publisher that "UNWIN'S LIBRARY" fills a gap. One or two volumes will now be issued regularly every month. "UNWIN'S LIBRARY" may be obtained at all bookshops and railway stalls on the Continent, but must not be taken into the United Kingdom or any British Colony.

2 MILES to ONE INCH

This map has just been prepared, and is as yet comparatively unknown to the public. It is exceedingly useful to cyclists and tourists, covering as it does fairly large areas, yet being almost microscopical in its accuracy.

A well-known cycling expert, writing of this map, said:—"As I am familiar with the maps of other countries, I have no hesitation in describing the above as the finest maps the world has yet produced there can be no doubt about the superiority of those wholly delightful ½-inch Ordnance Maps."

They are printed in Colours, showing the principal roads, the hills, woods, sea coast, &c.

The price per sheet, folded or unfolded, is 1/- net.

The same mounted, 1/6 net.

Several of the combined sheets, however, cost 1/6 net. Mounted, 2/- net.

Cut into sections and mounted to fold, 1/- per sheet extra.

Two or more sheets at 9d. each extra.

Sheets are supplied on paper, folded for the pocket, unless otherwise asked for.

A 2nd Edition of this map in sheets, rather more than twice as large as the present sheets, is in course of preparation.

Index to sheets, price 2d.

Characteristic sheet, explanatory of writing, ornament and symbols, &c., price 2d.

T. FISHER UNWIN, 1, Adelphi Terrace, W.C.

1 MILE to ONE INCH

This map, which is the only map published on this scale, is well known to the public and needs no recommendation.

A leading sporting journalist said :—"The new one-inch Ordnance Sheets, with red contour lines and brown hill shading, are the only maps for the pedestrian. Their accuracy is microscopical; they are 'a thing of beauty and a joy for ever.'"

They are published in four forms :—

(a) In outline with contours.

(b) With hills shaded in brown.

(c) With hills shaded in black.

(d) Coloured, water blue, hills brown, roads sienna, contours red, and (in the later editions) woods green.

(a), (b), and (c) are printed from the engraved plate, and the price of each sheet is 1/- net; if cut into sections and mounted to fold for the pocket, the extra price for one sheet is 1/-; for two or more sheets 9d. per sheet.

The Isle of Man is published in one sheet, price 2/6 net flat or 5/- net, cut into sections and mounted to fold.

The sheets of the 1-inch map are given on the Index.

The sheets of the coloured edition (d) correspond as a rule with those of the engraved edition, and are priced at 1/- net each on paper, folded or unfolded; 1/6 net each mounted ditto; or cut into sections and mounted, 1/- extra for one sheet; or for two or more sheets, 9d. per sheet extra. There are, however, many combined sheets. The areas of these special sheets are shown on the Index by thick lines, and a list of them, with their prices, is given on another page.

The coloured map is always supplied folded on paper when available, unless otherwise applied for.

An Index to the sheets of the 1-inch map is published, price 2d.

Characteristic sheet, explanatory of writing, ornament and symbols, &c., price 6d. net.

MAPS COVERING LARGER AREAS.

Any four sheets can be cut into sections and mounted together to form one map. Price 7/- net.

Although these are not kept in stock, they can be prepared at fairly short notice. They are particularly useful when a large area surrounding a town is wanted on one sheet.

1 MILE to ONE INCH—continued.

In addition to the general 1-inch map of the whole country, a cheaper form of map of certain towns and the surrounding country, and of certain special districts has been prepared. These maps as a rule cover a very much larger area than the ordinary 1-inch sheet. They are printed on thin paper unless otherwise specified, and folded in a cover. The roads are coloured sienna.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEYS.

ORIGINAL ONE-INCH MAP—Geological Edition.

This survey, on the scale of 1 inch to 1 mile, is complete in 110 divisions. Fifty-two of these divisions are printed in single sheets, size 40 inches by 27, at prices varying from 4*s.* to 8*s.* 6*d.* ‡ ; the quarter sheets are 1*s.* 6*d.* or 3*s.* each. The Index Map (facing this page) shows the divisions of the sheets. The Official Catalogue of Geological Maps, Sections, and Memoirs, relating to the whole of the United Kingdom, can be had post-free for 1*s.* 3*d.*

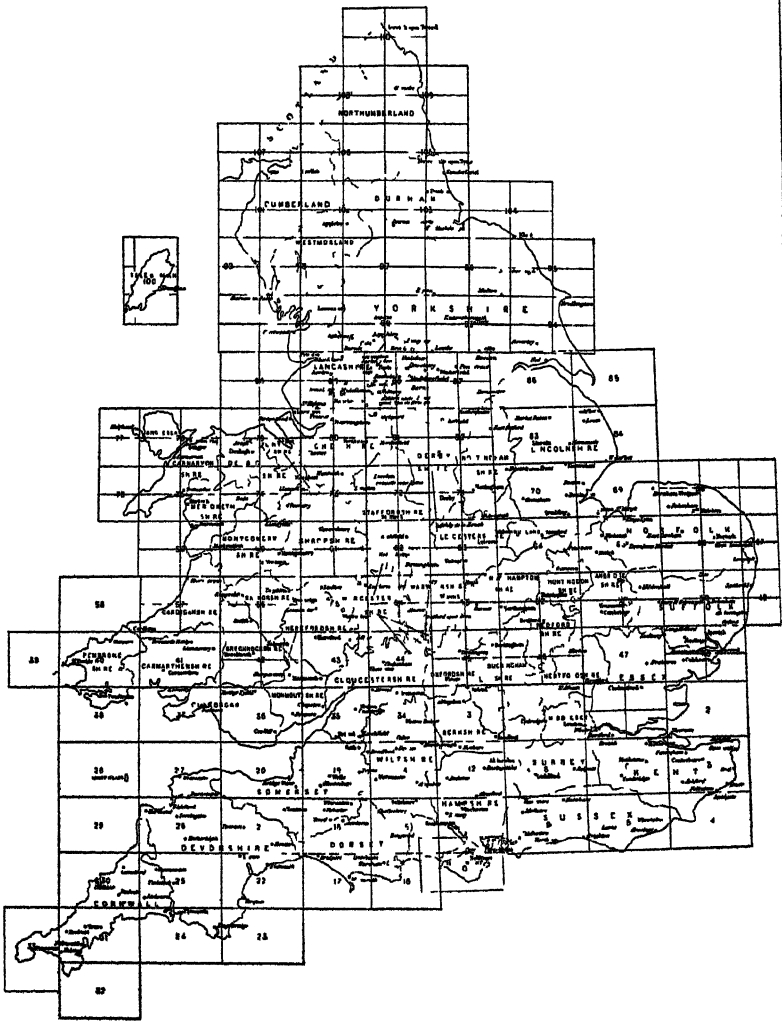

Note — The "Solid" Maps show the distribution of the solid rock formations, the "Drift" Maps show the superficial deposits overlying them, the rock formations being coloured only where there is no drift. In parts of the E. of England where the superficial deposits are thick and widely spread, only the Drift Edition is published. From near Scarborough southward, over the E. and S.E. of England, the Drift Edition should be ordered, this being the most useful for questions relating to Agriculture, Water Supply, &c. For mining purposes the Solid Edition would probably be preferred.

The XIXth Century Classics.

Edited by CLEMENT K. SHORTER.

Crown 8vo, art canvas gilt, 2s. 6d. ; half-polished Persian, gilt top, 3s. 6d.

Throughout the whole history of English literature there is no period which impresses one with its variety and helpfulness in any way comparable to the first half of the nineteenth century. No period certainly has produced so many books which it is essential for our own age to read. THE NINETEENTH CENTURY CLASSICS place these permanent treasures of the century before the public in a most attractive and serviceable form. Each volume is beautifully printed on fine paper, well bound, with photogravure frontispiece.

Detective & Adventure Series.

(COPYRIGHT.)

Large Demy 8vo, well printed from clear type on good paper, bound in attractive tinted picture wrapper, with two illustrations. 6d.

The fascination that mystery cases, plot and counter-plot, crime and wild adventure, clever schemes, and acute analysis have for the public, in real life or the life of fiction, is a factor that does not seem to change with changing years. As it was in the days of Poe and Gaboriau, so it is to-day. The following list will show that the most famous masters of this branch of literature are represented in this new series.

IN THE PRESS.

HARDY BULBOUS PLANTS (Florilegium Harlemense). With Descriptions and Life-size Figures in Colours of 148 Varieties. Produced under the Auspices of the General Association of Bulb Culturists of Haarlem. Edited by EDWARD STEP, F.L.S., Author of "Favourite Flowers of Garden and Greenhouse." Imperial 4to, handsomely bound in ¼ pigskin, cloth sides and gilt top. Net 84s.

The 60 superb plates, containing figures of some 148 varieties, are most exquisitely reproduced from handsome specimens of the actual plant. The book is one of deep interest to all bulb growers, who should not fail to secure a copy at an early date.

This handsome volume owes its origin to the Society of Dutch Bulb Culturists, who, in order to secure a correct and accurate nomenclature, decided to procure a fine specimen of each variety and to produce an exact reproduction in colour, placing the work in the hands of M. A. GOSSEINS, the well-known flower artist, whose name is a guarantee of its excellence. In addition to this each separate proof as printed has had to pass the examination of a committee of experts on the subject. Only 100 copies of the work have been secured for issue in Great Britain, and as nearly the whole of this number have already been taken up prior to publication, would-be purchasers are advised to apply to their booksellers at once.

THE ROYAL NATURAL HISTORY.

Edited by RICHARD LYDEKKER, B.A., F.R.S., with a Preface by P. L. SCLATER, M.A., F.R.S. In super royal 8vo. The work contains over 3,500 pages, more than 2,000 Illustrations and 72 magnificent Coloured Plates, acknowledged to be unsurpassed as specimens of Natural History Pictures; it is the only complete Natural History planned according to the modern classification adopted at the Natural History Museum, and written by living writers. Accurate, Up-to-date and Reliable.

The Royal Natural History forms a Work of exceptional Merit and Interest. Every Household should possess a Copy.

It is acknowledged on all sides as, without doubt, the leading standard work on the great subject of Animal Life, which, in some branch or other, is of daily interest to all of us. A subscription to such a work in any of its forms is a lasting and valuable present, and no better investment could be made by the head of any household than to place a work of this nature on the shelves of the family library.

THE ILLUSTRATED FAMILY BIBLE: Being the Old and New Testaments, according to the Authorised Version. With 1,200 Wood Engravings and 26 fine Steel Plate Illustrations after the Old Masters. By JOHN KITTO, D.D., F.S.A. To which has been added a Series of Introductions to the Various Books of the Old and New Testaments by Rev. CANON BIRKS, M.A., late Vicar of Holy Trinity, Cambridge. In Two Volumes, royal 4to, handsomely bound in full Persian morocco, with bevelled boards, gilt roll and gilt edges. £3 3s.

The Publishers of Dr. Kitto's "Illustrated Family Bible" have much satisfaction in issuing a New Edition of that invaluable work. It may be assumed that no diversity of opinion can exist as to the great utility of this publication. The desire of the publishers is to bring to the homes of all English-speaking people the great work of the late Dr. Kitto, as incomparably the most interesting, instructive and unsectarian Family Commentary extant.

Among the many special features of this "Bible" are the large, clear type; the Steel Engravings, including a Register for Births, Deaths and Marriages; the 1,200 Wood Illustrations; the General Introduction by the Rev. Canon Birks; the Appendix at the end of the Old Testament, giving the result of recent Oriental Investigations; and the Copious Index to Dr. Kitto's most valuable Commentary. These, with other useful tables, too numerous to mention, render this Edition as a Family Bible complete, and cannot fail to give universal satisfaction.

THE POPULAR HISTORY OF ENGLAND. An Illustrated History of Society and Government. From the Earliest Times to the Year 1848. By CHARLES KNIGHT. With a Continuation brought down to the Year 1890. With upwards of 1,000 Steel and Wood Engravings. In Nine Volumes, imperial 8vo, cloth gilt, gilt top. £3 3s.

"The Popular History of England" is universally acknowledged to be by far the most elaborate and able of all the works of the late Charles Knight. It differs from most other Standard Histories of England, which are made up of bulky continuations by different hands. It is compendious, yet full. It is written on a uniform and original plan. It illustrates Society as well as Government. It is, emphatically, a History of the People. On its first appearance it was enthusiastically welcomed by all parties and all classes, and it still retains its original popularity.

The Work is Illustrated with upwards of One Thousand Engravings on Wood, and a Series of about One Hundred and Ninety Steel Engraved Portraits. The Wood Engravings are real Illustrations of the Text, selected from Rare and Original Sources. They represent Localities, Monumental Remains, Costumes, Works of Industry and Art, Popular Amusements, etc. The Portraits are of Sovereigns and persons remarkable in Civil, Military, Ecclesiastical, and Literary matters at all stages of English History.

A SON OF REUBEN. With Original Illustrations by H. R. STEER, R.I.

The Aberdeen Free Press says: "It may be confidently predicted that this charming story will be reckoned as one of the best of this popular writer's works. It is not surprising to learn, as was noted the other day, the immense circulation his books have attained, and it is no exaggerated praise to say that 'A Son of Reuben' will take its place among the best of them."

THE HEART OF MAN. With Original Illustrations by ERNEST PRATER.

The Free Methodist says: "Should Mr. Hocking write no more, his niche in English literature is now filled. Taken in every way, the book is great. Arrestive, sustained, idyllic, powerfully dramatic, it lays hold of the reader from the first and holds him as with a spell."

CALEB CARTHEW: A Life Story. With Original Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED.

The Morning Post says: "'Caleb Carthew' is no ordinary book, and the best may yet learn much that is good from its perusal. An earnest, manly tone runs through it."

FOR ABIGAIL: A West-Country Story. With Original Illustrations by W. S. STACEY.

The Academy says: "For 'Abigail' reminds us, to an extent, of 'John Halifax,' and its author will not care for higher commendation."

WHERE DUTY LIES. With Original Illustrations by HAROLD COPPING.

The Glasgow Herald says: "The story is one of great and sustained interest, with plenty of movement and mystery. The illustrations, from original drawings by Harold Copping, form a pleasing feature."

FOR LIGHT AND LIBERTY. With Original Illustrations by ALFRED JOHNSON.

The Publishers' Circular says: "With a keen remembrance of Mr. Hocking's other works of fiction, we are inclined to think he has never imagined or written anything better than this."

FOR SUCH IS LIFE. With Original Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED.

The Christian World says: "For skilful construction of plot, for delineation of character, and for fertility of incident, this story is as good as anything Mr. Hocking has done."

IN SPITE OF FATE. With Original Illustrations by F. REASON.

The Methodist Recorder says: "The graphic sketches of character, the abundant incident, and the natural conversations of the book, should secure it a very warm welcome at the hands of Mr. Hocking's already wide circle of friends."

GOD'S OUTCAST. With Original Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED.

The Daily Telegraph says: "Mr. Silas Hocking, although a no less prolific than popular writer of fiction, has never produced an abler, wholesomer or more entertaining story than his latest novel, published under the above title."

SILAS K. HOCKING'S WORKS 8s. 6d. (continued).

In large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, bevelled boards. Each 8s. 6d.

THE DAY OF RECOMPENSE. With Original Illustrations by A. TWIDLE.

The Daily Mail says: "Mr Hocking is attentive to the ethical purpose of his human story; and here, as always, his style is engagingly simple and direct."

THE STRANGE ADVENTURES OF ISRAEL PENDRAY. With Original Illustrations by H. L. RICHARDSON.

The Daily Telegraph says: "Mr. Silas K. Hocking's work is earnest, direct and simple. 'The Strange Adventures of Israel Pendray' form an exciting train of incidents quite apart from their moral tone."

TO PAY THE PRICE. With Original Illustrations by ARTHUR A. DIXON.

The Examiner says: "A capital story in Mr. Hocking's usual straightforward manner."

THE FATE OF ENDILLOE. With Original Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED.

The Literary World says: "It is no matter of wonder that Mr. Hocking's books have sold by the million, for he is a born story-teller. Moreover, he tells his stories in such simple, direct and homely language, yet with a vigour that holds his readers."

GRIPPED. With Original Illustrations by J. GILLINGHAM.

The Sheffield Independent says: "An exciting story, told with a swing and go that sustain a lively interest throughout. The adventures of the Vicar are as wonderful as they are romantic, and the other main characters are drawn with naturalness and skill."

THE WIZARD'S LIGHT. With Original Illustrations by JOHN CAMERON.

The Daily Chronicle says: "Every one knows that Mr. Hocking can tell a good story, and 'The Wizard's Light' is an admirable example of his narrative power and dexterous manipulation of plot and counterplot."

A BONNIE SAXON. With Original Illustrations by LANCELOT SPEED.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "A pleasant history related in a rippling, easy and picturesque style."

THE TEMPTER'S POWER. With Original Illustrations by JOHN CAMERON.

The Liverpool Mercury says: "There is not a dull moment in 'The Tempter's Power,' and the tale will doubtless appeal to a far wider circle than did Mr. Hocking's previous books."

THE SCARLET CLUE. With Original Illustrations by JOHN CAMERON.

The Morning Post says: "A stirring tale, the scene of which is laid in the Fell Country. The characters are strongly drawn, and the book will be eagerly read by his admirers."

THE FLAMING SWORD. With Original Illustrations by A. TWIDLE.

The Statesman says: "Mr. Silas Hocking deserves praise for the courage with which he has launched on the novel-reading world a book which would do credit to Mrs. Henry Wood or even Dickens himself."

THE SQUIRE'S DAUGHTER. With Original Illustrations by A. TWIDLE.

This, Mr. Hocking's latest story, will prove a serious rival to all his previous work.

THREE FAVOURITE WORKS BY THE REV. J. H. INGRAHAM.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE; or, Israel in Bondage. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL.D. With Illustrations.

"This volume takes up the Hebraic history at the time of the sale of Joseph into Egypt and closes with the promulgation of the Two Tables of the Divine Law from Sinai."

THE THRONE OF DAVID. From the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL.D. With Illustrations.

"This volume illustrates the grandeur of Hebraic history when 'The People of God' had attained under the reigns of David and Solomon, the height of their power and glory as a nation."

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID; or, Three Years in the Holy City. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL.D. With Original Illustrations.

"This volume illustrates the decadence of the Hebraic power, and the final culmination is presented in our Saviour."

These Works serve to illustrate the three great periods of Jewish history, and throw considerable light upon the Bible narratives by bringing before the reader much that is important and interesting with regard to the social life of the peoples who were then engaged in making history.

EDEN TO PATMOS: Incidents and Scenes in Bible History. By Rev. GORDON CALTHROP. With Maps, Plans, and Illustrations.

"We have seldom met with a book that deals with Scripture story more skilfully and fearlessly. The teaching is affectionate, lucid, and eminently sensible. Children will not be repelled by the 'dryness' too common in religious books."—The Literary World.

THE QUEEN: Her Early Life and Reign. By L. VALENTINE, Author of "On Honour's Roll," etc. 380 pp., and nearly 100 Illustrations. In crown 8vo, cloth gilt. 2s.

This work, written in the lifetime of the late Queen Victoria, will prove a very interesting volume for all who may be fortunate to become its possessors.

"The charm of this book consists in its being emphatically a personal history. The author has collected an amazing number of authentic anecdotes from all kinds of sources, and no Englishman can read the volume through without becoming interested in the Royal Family."—Record.

AN ORIGINAL WAGER. Being a Veracious Account of a Genuine Bet. By A VAGABOND. Illustrated by G. MICHELET. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d., or in picture boards. 2s.

This volume—dedicated to the Sportsmen of France in appreciation of their kindliness of heart, frank cordiality and generous hospitality by the Author—gives a most interesting and amusing account of the result of an argument between two members of a well-known club as to whether the French are a sufficiently sport-loving nation to admit of a stranger earning his livelihood simply by sport for a period of six weeks—the result of the experiment and the many adventures of the author prove most entertaining reading.

"Clearly-printed volumes, handsomely and well bound, and certainly a marvel of cheapness. This promises to be a library of fiction that anyone may be proud to possess, and is really beyond the reach of but few readers."—Spectator.

"The paper is thick and good, the page a handsome one, and printed from clear type; and the binding is well done in cloth. He must be fastidious who wants anything better."—St. James's Gazette.

"In appearance and get-up they are worthy a place in any library, while the price, two shillings a volume, makes them available to almost all classes of book-lovers. They should be especially welcome to managers and proprietors of popular libraries and book-clubs."—Literary World.

"Mrs. Burnett's earlier stories are mostly 'love stories,' and judged by that standard are as nearly perfect as possible. The characters are all charmingly fresh, original and lovable. If the author when she wrote these little volumes was not aware of their real merits, then she literally did what few do—'she builded better than she knew.'"

THE HOME AND ENTERPRISE LIBRARY—1s.

A NEW SERIES OF STORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

The volumes are all copyright and do not re-occur in our own catalogue, and all are specially fitted to please, and be suitable to the age of children who are likely to be recipients of one shilling books. They are good, clean adventure stories, not necessarily goody-goody, on the other hand, not irreligious. So many series supposed to be suitable for young boys and girls contain volumes much more fitted to be read by men and women, that parents and prize-givers will find this series a boon.

THE ALBION POETS—3s. 6d.

This Series of the Works of our more widely-read Poets is the most complete and undoubtedly the most popular Edition issued. The completeness and exact following to the original text place the "Albion" Edition far ahead of its competitors, many of which are merely edited volumes, which reflect the opinion of the particular editor, but mutilate the Poets.

The volumes have a fine Steel Portrait, printed on Japanese vellum, with a Title Page in Red and Black.

The volumes are uniform in size, they are clearly printed from large type on excellent paper, and are strongly and neatly bound.

In all important Notes are given, and a Life or Memoir and, where necessary, a Glossary.

In large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, gilt top. Each 3s. 6d.

The Times says: "Thanks to Messrs. Warne and Co.'s 'CHANDOS CLASSICS,' it is in the power of any one to become possessed of a very respectable library—respectable both in quantity and quality—for a sum of money that some years ago would hardly have sufficed to place one complete edition of a good writer on the bookshelf."

The Whitehall Review says: "A very high meed of praise is due to the handsome volumes with which Messrs. Warne have enriched that most admirable series, 'THE CHANDOS CLASSICS.' 'THE CHANDOS CLASSICS' began many years ago, when the idea of cheap and good books was stranger to the public mind than it is now, and it has since proved a strong and steadily increasing factor in the solution of the problem of popular education."

COOKERY BOOKS, ETC.

FOOD AND FEEDING. By Sir Henry Thompson, F.R.C.S., M.B. Lond., etc. Twelfth and revised edition. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, gilt top. 5s.

The author's object is to show how people may enjoy agreeable as well as wholesome feeding, and that there is an artistic sense to be gratified, both in the method of cooking food and in the serving of it at table.

"It ought to be studied carefully by every commencing man-of-a-house, and to be regularly presented, like the statutes of the University to a matriculant, to every young lady as she steps into her car'ge after her mar'ge."—Saturday Review.

DURET'S HOUSEHOLD COOKERY. By E. Duret, ex-Manager of St. James's Hall Restaurant. Containing over 800 Original Recipes. In crown 8vo, cloth gilt. 5s.

"This most valuable culinary work will occupy a place entirely distinct and superior to the ordinarily bulky collection of recipes usually placed in the hands of the public. The writer is a caterer of vast experience: and the advantages and special features of the new work will be at once manifest to all who use it and try to approach perfection in this necessary art."—Lady's Pictorial.

COOKERY, ITS ART AND PRACTICE. By Professor J. L. W. Thudichum, M.D., F.R.C.P. (Lond.). A popular treatise on the science, practice, and the ethical and medical import of the culinary art. With a dictionary of culinary terms. In crown 8vo, cloth gilt.

Net 3s. 6d.

"The volume is not only instructive, but is very pleasant reading, and it explodes a good many antiquated theories as to the uses and abuses of food."—Daily Telegraph.

"We are grateful for Dr. Thudichum's instructive and entertaining treatise, and sincerely trust that cooks and teachers of cookery will profit by its valuable example."—Saturday Review.

CRUDEN'S CONCORDANCE.

The use and great value of a Concordance to the Holy Scriptures is acknowledged by the whole Christian world since the best and truest interpretation of these must be obtained by the comparison of parallel passages with each other and these are most quickly found by reference to a good Concordance

CRUDEN'S COMPLETE CONCORDANCE TO THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT A Dictionary and Alphabetical Index to the Bible With a Concordance to the Proper Names of the Old and New Testaments, a Complete Table of Proper Names, Meanings in the Original Languages, a Concordance to the Apocrypha, and a Compendium of the Holy Scriptures, etc, etc Edited by WILLIAM YOUNGMAN

A profitable use of the Bible can scarcely be achieved without this work Its popularity has endured for many years and is to be found in the study of nearly every preacher It ought to be side by side with the Bible in every Christian home or Bible student's library

This the only unabridged issue of the above work, we publish in the three following forms —

The Imperial Edition

Imp 8vo, cloth gilt bevelled boards Steel Portrait	7	6

The Standard Edition.

Imp 8vo, black cloth gilt red edges, Steel Portrait .	5	0

The Student's Edition.

Super royal 8vo cloth gilt . .	3	6

NOTE —The advantages of these Editions over all other so called cheap issues are that the type is new and legible, the text of Youngman's is recognized as the best and the full Concordance of the Apocrypha is given besides an Alphabetical List of the Proper Names in the Old and New Testament, with their Meaning or Signification in their Original Languages—a Concordance to the Proper Names—Summary of the Contents of the Holy Bible—and also a Complete Summary of the Contents of all the Chapters of the New Testament

These New Editions are without doubt the Most Complete and the Cheapest Cruden's issued and contain more References and more Supplementary Matter of great value than any other popular Concordances

Be sure you buy a genuine unabridged Cruden and none of the modern substitutes, good as they may be at the price You need only one, have none but the best —Extract from a Lecture by REV C H SPURGEON

From Rev. GEORGE EVERARD: 'I can most heartily recommend this Hymn Book. I value it exceedingly, combining as it does the best hymns new and old, and being at the same time thoroughly sound in doctrine. I value it also for the element of praise pervading it to so large an extent. The more it is used the better it will be liked.'

From Rev. W. N. M'GUINNESS, All Saints', Shooter's Hill, Kent: "It was a serious question with us which Hymn Book we should introduce. All doubt was removed when we met with this collection. It has, I may say, all the excellences of 'Hymns Ancient and Modern,' and none of the defects which mar that book. The poetry is select and spiritual. . . I have compared it with nearly every collection known to hymnologists."

 A Specimen Copy of any of the Editions sent post free on receipt of the price. Special Quotations will be given to Clergymen and others using quantities.

The publishers of "The Nuttall Encyclopædia" believe that with the enormous spread of education amongst all classes there exists a large demand for a popular Encyclopædia of General Information, in a single volume, handy of Reference, and at a price within the reach of all. In fact a work which can be constantly turned to for information in a concise form on matters of daily intercourse, but foreign in the main to the class of topical and necessarily ephemeral matter prepared for the public by the important Annuals and Almanacs; and this work has been expressly compiled to meet this demand.

"Mr. Wood has supplied the derivation of the leading word in every group of words, and as it is printed in italic letter, it is readily referred to. The woodcuts are numerous and graphic. The vocabulary generally has been much expanded, also the classical and foreign phrases, as well as the abbreviations, and everywhere the presence of the revising hand is visible. The result is a volume of remarkable value and utility."—The Globe.

"There are few English Dictionaries costing three or four times as much which can, on the whole, be pronounced superior to it. The definitions are remarkably full."—The Athenæum.

The Value of a Reliable Dictionary cannot be over-estimated.

THE CHEAPEST DICTIONARY IN THE WORLD IS "NUTTALL'S STANDARD DICTIONARY" EDITED BY WOOD.

The Advantages of this Dictionary are :—

Its COMPLETENESS. It contains 832 pages with 100,000 References, full Pronunciations, Etymologies, Definitions, Technical Terms, Illustrations, etc.

Its CONCISENESS.—Special attention has been given to the Definitions, which are at once clear, concise, and adequate. In this respect it stands "unique" over other popular priced dictionaries, gaining at once by its terseness and precision very valuable space which enables many more words to be included in its pages than can be given in works that have a greater pagination, but suffer from verbose, laboured and confusing definitions.

Its CONVENIENCE OF REFERENCE.—Each word being in strict alphabetical order, and printed in black-faced type, reference is very rapid.

Its HANDINESS OF SIZE and CLEARNESS OF TYPE.

Its PRONUNCIATIONS.—The greatest care has been taken to simplify, and as far as possible do away with, the numerous orthoepic marks which in so many pronouncing dictionaries appear so confusing and are difficult to recollect. Each word is spelt phonetically precisely as it would be written if spelt according to sound.
